

Welcome

Dear Children, Young People, Parents, Teachers and Film Enthusiasts!

I am excited to welcome you all to International Children's Film Festival - Karachi, once again presenting the best of films from around the globe made especially for, by and about children and young people.

We are very proud to be continuing with the festival. This year in Karachi and making consistent efforts to place the festival at the heart of young people's learning experiences. I believe cinema is the gateway to creative literacy in Pakistan and a great resource for addressing the values in our culture and holistic education for children and young people.

I am grateful to the filmmakers that have contributed, the festival team, our esteemed jury members and partners who have contributed to this venture over the years and helped the festival grow. We have collectively put together an amazing program this year with much love and we hope you fully enjoy and have the benefits of this wonderful experience.

Welcome to the ICFF - Karachi 2016.
Let's Entertain, inspire and educate!

Shoaib Iqbal
Festival Director

The Little Art

The Little Art is a non-profit organization that attempts to use art and its various forms as a key spur in providing and improving education across Pakistan. Since its advent in 2007, The Little Art has strived to incorporate art with the present education system in a way as to facilitate children to not only realize their dreams but to protect them, nourish them and eventually turn them into reality.

Teachers' Resource Centre

The Teachers' Resource Centre (TRC) is a non-profit, non-government organization, established in 1986. A group of educationists formed TRC as a response to the declining standards of education in both government and private sector schools.
